Re: Anne Bryant, Ellen Bernfeld and Gloryvision, Ltd
v. Media Right Productions, Index # 07 CIV 3050

Dear Mr. Korik:

This office has been counsel to Media Right Productions, Inc. and is a friend Douglas Maxwell and is writing this letter to attempt a simple resolution of this matter. Mr. Berlent, like your clients, is a struggling artist with limited resources so we are providing all information in an effort to resolve this immediately and to avoid unnecessary legal costs.

As per agreement between Media Right and Gloryvision as well as discussion between the entities, Media Right placed the albums, "Songs for Cats", and "Songs for Dogs" for sale on The Orchard. The upload charge was one hundred fifty dollars ($150) per album, which Media Right Productions paid.

Attached is The Orchard print out for all of Media Right products (with redaction as to all other albums) along with breakdown for the two albums in question. The print outs show total revenues for "Songs For Dogs" from January 1, 2002 through current of $250.95 and for "Songs for Cats" of $131.91. Thus the total revenue was $382.86. After expenses of Media Right the distributable profits were $82.86 of which your clients would be entitled to $66.29. Media Right did not realize that earn out had occurred as to the two albums or would have paid the $66.29. Media Right is willing to pay the entire $382.56 and take a loss of $300. to resolve this matter. Media Right will also advise the Orchard to forward all futures sales revenues directly to Gloryvision with no fee to Mediaright. Mediaright will waive its twenty percent fee (20%) for all future sales.

Media Right has no knowledge as to any sales on E-Bay or other sales and if requested will provide an affidavit to that effect. Media Right had right to sell album to Orchard as agent for your clients so there is no copyright infringement or other federal question as to this defendant.

Please look over the materials and call me so we discuss and close this matter in a salutary manner.

Very truly yours,

Re: Anne Bryant, Ellen Bernfeld and Gloryvision, Ltd
v. Media Right Productions, Index # 07 CIV 3050

Dear Michael:

As I advised you today, Media Right has duty to defend The Orchard. In the interests of attempting resolution of this matter in a cost effective manner enclosed is listing agreement and accounting of The Orchard. The accounting shows gross receipts for "Songs for Dogs" of $260.84 and "Songs for Cats" of $135.81. This is consistent with accounting provided previously by Media Right providing internal printout with a discrepancy of $14.

Please advise of any questions. I suspect that we should now be able to put this matter to rest upon payment as per prior letter plus the additional $14. If this is not the case, please explain what is unresolved.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,
